

KILIMANJARO CLIMBING RONGAI ROUTE - 5 NIGHTS 6 DAYS

Day 1: The Rongai route is the one of the easiest to the peak. Your first days walk is a gradual ascend through the rain forest. The Main thing to watch out for is Elephant and Cats covering portion of the trail a bout 4hrs.

Day 2: The morning Walk is steady ascend up to the second cave (Alt.3450m) with superb views of Kibo and the eastern ice fields on the crater rim. After lunch leave the Main trail and strike out cross the moorland on a smaller path towards the Jagged peaks of Mawenzi the campsite is in a sheltered valley with giant scenarios near Kikelewa cave. About 7 hrs.

Day 3: A short but steep climb up grass slopes is rewarded by superb all round views and a tangible sense of wilderness. Leave the vegetation behind shortly in a cirque directly beneath the towering spires of Mawenzi. The afternoon will be free to rest or explore the surrounding.

Day 4: Cross the lunar desert of the saddle between Mawenzi and Kibo to rea Kibo hurt (alt. 4759m) at the bottom of the Kibo crater wall. The remainder of the day is spent resting in preparation for the final ascent before a very early night. 5 hours.

Day 5: Begin the final, and by far the steepest and most demanding part of the climb. Climbing by torch light around 01.00 am proceed very slowly in the darkness on a switch back trail through loose volcanic screen to reach the crater rim at Gilman's point (Alt. 5885m) rest there for a short time to enjoy the spectacular sunrise over Mawenzi. Those who are still feeling strong enough can make the 3hrs round trip to Uhuru peak (alt. 5896m), the descent to Kibo (alt. 4740) is surprisingly fast and after some refreshment, continue the descent to reach the final campsite at horombo about 11hrs.

Day 6: After breakfast, steady descent takes us down through moorland to Mandara hut 9 (Alt. 2752m). The first stopping place at the Marangu route. Continue descending through lovely lush forest on a good path to the National park gate at Marangu. Here you will meet your vehicle, which will transport you to Arusha via Moshi.
